

Working Together for Laurens

Please use this form to share maintenance needs, safety concerns, or general feedback with the City of Laurens.

You may provide details about the issue, including location, description, and any supporting information. Residents are encouraged to use this form whenever they notice something that needs attention.

Completed forms may be submitted at City Hall during normal business hours.

This form is reviewed by City staff during normal business hours only. If you mark a concern as urgent, please understand that additional time may still be required for investigation and response. This form is not for emergencies – if you have an emergency, dial 911 immediately.
